Camino Nipped In Junior Rose Bowl Grid Tiff

hit hard and fumbled with the Warriors again nailing the pigskin just as the first period ended.

Eagles Sharpen Claws
Hinds' rugged line stiffened, however, and the Caminomen were forced to punt moments later. End Norm Becker booted out of bounds on the Eagle 31-yard line.

Six plays later, the Eagles were in the Warrior end zone. Hines and King alternated at line smashes until the South-erners reached their own 49. Then, on first down, Renfro hit the left side of the line on a trap, cut to his left and out-ran Warrior defenders for the game's first score.

Graham converted for the Eagles, with QB Charles Nourcier holding. The Warriors failed to gain after receiving the kickoff and Norm Becker booted to the Eagle 29. The Camino eleven was handed the ball on the next play, however, when King dropped the seed again and Co-captain Jim Clark recovered for El Camino. Camino pounded the Hinds' 31, where a fourth down pass, Contestable to Tiberio, fell incomplete.

After the Eagles failed to gain on the next series of plays, Renfro punted to Warrior Don Greco, who returned the boot to the Hinds' 39. The El Camino halfback pranced 29 yards down the right sidelines on the run-back, one of the best ground gainers of the afternoon.

Again, Score Denied
The Warriors were denied a score again as time ran out with El Camino on the Hinds' 30. A long pass, from QB Bob Beathard to Roger Metoyer, was batted down in the end zone as the halftime gun clicked.

Eight minutes and ten seconds were left in the third period when El Camino knotted the game on a 23-yard pass from Contestable to Gerie Wight.

A 15-yard clipping penalty against Hinds and four completed passes set up the score. The key play of the drive was a 7-yard jump pass from Joe to Norm Becker on fourth down. The play gave the Warriors a first down on the Eagle 20.

After Greco lost three yards at tackle, Contestable pitched for the Warriors' only score. The aerial was batted into the air by the Eagles' King, but fell into Wight's outstretched arms in the end zone.

Contestable split the uprights for the extra point, with Greco holding.

Southerners Ramble
The tie was short-lived, however, as the Eagles scored the game's final counter on the second play after taking the kickoff.

Hines hit guard for a yard, placing the ball on the Eagle 36. Then, Renfro broke loose for 64 yards and a score. It was the same play that provided the first touchdown for the Eagles, through the usually strong Warrior line.

Nourcier fumbled the pass from center, and the conversion try was not good.

El Camino was frustrated in two more scoring drives, one each in the third and fourth periods.

With time running out in the third quarter, the Warriors drove to the Hinds' 4-yard line, but Contestable threw incomplete on fourth down. Midway through the final quarter, the Warriors moved to the Eagle 29, but again the Hinds' defense stiffened and thwarted El Camino's hopes.

Pass Average Slumps
Contestable's passing average suffered as he completed 7 of 15 attempts. But this must be attributed to the Eagles' superb pass defense. Although the Southerners were vulnerable on sideline passes, the Warrior qb's could not connect on long passes or pitches down the middle. The Warriors played inspired football, however, and with a break at the right time could have emerged the winners.

End Ken Cornell, Guard Jim Clark, and Tackle Fabian Abram were outstanding on defense for the locals. Contestable, Wight, and Greco, led the offensive thrust.

For the Eagles, it was a team effort with all 14 players contributing to the victory. From tackle to tackle, the Eagles were invincible, as Earl Leggett (280 pounds of him) Solesau, Graham, John Vecchio, and Don Seully provided the line strength. Renfro and Hines were the outstanding ground gainers of the day.

CONTESTABLE CUTS A CAPER . . . El Camino's Joe Contestable zips around on a pass-optional play, while Hinds tacklers move in for the pinch. Leaping through the air is the Eagles' Durwood Graham, while Larry Meadows (24) darts in. Don Greco is the Caminoman on the turf. The Warriors fell to the Invaders from the deep South 13-7 in the 9th annual Junior Rose Bowl classic at Pasadena, Saturday afternoon.

EL CAMINO GAIN . . . Stan Becker burrows through for a few yards before was stopped by the Hinds' Budle Solesau. A strong defensive team, the Eagles were able to bottle up most long threats made by El Camino. John Vecchio moves in at the right.

TOUCHDOWN . . . El Camino rooters nearly wore their legs and lungs out, jumping up and down and hooping and hollering at the Junior Rose Bowl game, Saturday. Here, a group of fans register hopes that the locals have pushed across a score—which they didn't quite make. A record crowd of 61,559 was on hand to view the "titanic."

Playoffs for Flag Grid Race Tuesday

Rain put the damper on a proposed playoff game in the Recreation Department's flag football race, Thursday night, so games have been rescheduled for tomorrow evening, Elmer "Red" Moon, city athletic director, has announced. The Junior League Demons and the Seaside Seals will meet at Walteria Park at 8 o'clock. In the Midget circuit, the Nativty crew will take on the Sealtions to decide a stalemate in this division. This game will be a prelim, getting underway at 7 o'clock out Walteria way.
